Interactive Reading Notes

Directions: Use Interactive Notes to help you read informational or literary texts. Interactive Notes guides you through a reading process to help you develop your ideas and express them in academic language. You may put questions, comments, connections, or favorite lines in any column; then use the prompts to help you write.

TITLE: _____   AUTHOR: _____   CHAPTER: _____

PRE-READING	DURING READING	POST READING
(Prepare to Read)	(Question/Comment/Note)	(Process/Summarize)
Who….?	I wonder….	I liked this because….
What….?	I see…..	I learned….
When….?	____ is important because….	I can't believe….
Where…..?	I think…..	The most important quote is…
Why…..?	This connects to…..	It is important because….
I already know…	I wish I could ask….	I can infer that….
I want to know….	Three important points are…	If I were the writer, I would…
I predict…..	These are important because…	The three most import words are…